

A Remarkable Collection of Timeless Wisdom in this published collection of the first full year of public communications from The Ancient Ones.

Introducing, The Ancient Ones:

“We are eternal beings of non-physical form. We make up a group of three, forming a council, for the guidance of Mankind, back to their original design as men and women. Our purpose is to assist everyone who is interested to develop their divine inner guidance, to direct themselves toward a humanity that is once again sacred and connected as One, in true camaraderie.”
